

Stewardship of Communication

Mike DiCosola
Director myParish App

In the beginning . . .

“It is not technology which determines whether or not communication is authentic, but rather the human heart and our capacity to use wisely the means at our disposal”
